As of March 31, 2008, approximately $9.75 billion of outstanding receivables, representing approximately 22.52% of the total outstanding receivables in the Master Trust Consumer Segment at such date, related to accounts that were originated on or before December 31, 2000, and are not included in the table above.

Yield is calculated by dividing the amount of prior month billed finance charges and fees, and interchange by the average principal receivables outstanding for the applicable period. Finance charges and fees include monthly periodic rate finance charges, the portion of the annual membership fees amortized on a monthly basis, cash advance fees, late charges, overlimit fees and other miscellaneous fees. For the year ended 2003, however, the yield rate excludes (i) the amount of billed finance charges and fees, and interchange for January 2003, and (ii) in the case of each other month in 2003, the portion of the annual membership fees billed prior to January 2003 and amortized during any such month in 2003. In each case this information is based on data that is unavailable.

Annualized figures are not necessarily indicative of actual results for the entire year.

The origination date for each account is the date on which the account is opened and an account number is assigned.

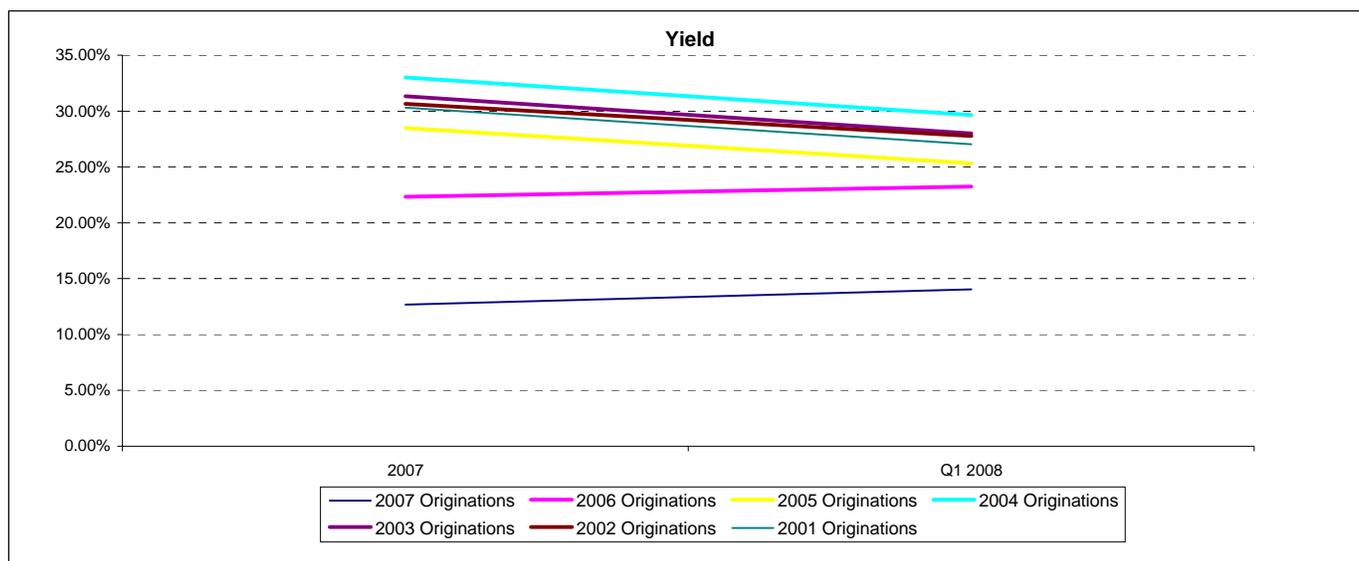

For each account comprising the Master Trust Consumer Segment, performance data is based on the account's performance on and after the date on which such account was added to the Master Trust Consumer Segment.
