Government and Policy Affairs Group

Annual Report

LEGISLATION AND REGULATIONS TOUCH ALL ASPECTS OF OUR COMPANY

At Capital One, we believe that engaging in the legislative and regulatory rulemaking processes are important for our business, customers, and associates. Advocacy gives us a voice and a platform to reinforce our values and move our industry and our country forward through the power of effective policy making.

Given the highly regulated nature of our business, we focus the majority of our time and attention on banking policy. Legislation and regulations touch all aspects of our company. From designing a new product to capital requirements and the corporate tax code, Capital One is impacted by the legislation enacted by lawmakers in Washington, D.C. and state capitals, as well as regulations issued at the state, federal and local levels. Legislation takes years of planning, dialogue and cultivation to develop.

We engage on a variety of public policy issues affecting the financial services industry. These issues include, among others, macro-prudential regulation, privacy, tax, technology, employment, cybersecurity, community development lending and consumer protection. We embrace the role that regulation plays in ensuring the safety and soundness of our industry and protecting the vital interest of our customers—be they individual consumers, small businesses or large corporations. The global pandemic continued to require focus of government resources at the federal, state and local levels, and we focused on policies impactful to our customers, both consumers and businesses, as well as our associates and communities.

Beyond policies that impact our economy and financial system, Capital One is also focused on efforts that affect our associates and customers. We actively lend our voice to national and local efforts to advance affordable housing goals and create a more diverse and inclusive workforce and society through our support of the Equality Act, the Equal Rights Amendment and social justice causes. Through speaker series, policy communications and non-partisan “Get Out the Vote” (GOTV) drives, we provide associates of all political backgrounds with the tools and information to engage on the issues that matter most to them.

Capital One also engages in political expenditures through a voluntary associate-funded Political Action Committee (PAC), as well as corporate expenditures, as further detailed in this report. The Center for Political Accountability, in conjunction with the Zicklin Center for Business Ethics Research at the Wharton School (University of Pennsylvania), has consistently recognized Capital One for our commitment to transparent political disclosure and effective governance and accountability.

At Capital One we continuously seek to engage policymakers thoughtfully, staying true to our central tenets of doing the best for our customers, associates, communities and the overall company.

2021 STATEMENTS ON INDEPENDENT POLITICAL EXPENDITURES BALLOT MEASURES

2021 Statements on Independent Political Expenditures Ballot Measures, & 501(c)(4)s

Capital One did not use any PAC or corporate funds to make any direct independent expenditures on behalf of candidates running for office in 2021, nor did Capital One use any PAC or corporate funds in support of or opposition to any ballot measures.

2021 Statements on Independent Political Expenditures & Ballot Measures

Capital One's political contributions during the reporting period were all made in accordance with its Corporate and PAC Political Contributions Guidelines. Contributions for federal offices and some state and local offices are made through the Capital One Financial Corporation Associates Political Fund. Additionally, Capital One makes corporate contributions in states where permissible under law. These contributions are directed to statewide offices, state legislators and local offices as are detailed within this report. Capital One does not contribute to presidential or judicial candidates.

We support candidates, on a bipartisan basis, who responsibly evaluate issues of concern to our company, associates and customers. We generally focus on members of leadership, members of relevant committees and members from states or districts where Capital One has facilities. We also seek to support candidates that focus on broader issues of importance to our communities and associates, including community support and those that create a more diverse and inclusive workforce and society.

As a part of Capital One's engagement strategy to maximize its voice, we also make contributions to certain trade association PACs to which Capital One belongs. In addition, contributions are made to leadership PACs of particular members of Congress and general purpose committees supporting coalitions of candidates.

Approval and Reporting of Political Contributions

Requests for political contributions are evaluated by the Contributions Committee and approved by the Vice President, Head of Government and Policy Affairs. Political spending reflects the company's interests and not those of individual associates. We report political contributions semi-annually, based on the calendar year in which they are approved, which may differ from when recipients report receiving the contribution.

The committee approves on an annual basis the corporation's contribution criteria, spending guidelines and total corporate expenditure budget. This committee also reviews on an annual basis the Corporation's political contributions, including contributions to candidates, political action committees, corporate contributions, PAC to PAC contributions (e.g. trade associations PACs) and the Corporation's Government and Policy Affairs Group Annual Report.
