Capital One did not use any PAC or corporate funds in support of or opposition to any ballot measures in 2016. Capital One did not contribute any PAC or corporate funds to special interest groups organized under Section 501(c)(4) of the IRS code in 2016.

Criteria for Political Contributions

Capital One's political contributions during the reporting period were all made in accordance with its Corporate and PAC Political Contributions Guidelines. Contributions for federal offices and some state and local offices are made through the Capital One Financial Corporation Associates Political Fund. Additionally, Capital One makes corporate contributions in states where permissible under law. These contributions are directed to statewide offices, state legislatures and, in rare instances, local offices. Capital One does not contribute to candidates for judicial elections. We support candidates, regardless of party affiliation, who responsibly evaluate issues of concern to our company, associates and customers. We generally focus on members of leadership, members of relevant committees, and members from states or districts where Capital One has facilities. Additionally, we may consider a candidate's positions on other issues that impact our ability to attract and retain top workforce talent.

As a part of Capital One's engagement strategy to maximize its voice, we also make contributions to certain trade association PACs to which Capital One belongs. In addition, periodic contributions are made to leadership PACs of particular members of Congress.

Leadership PACs are set up by members of Congress, and funds are distributed as member-to-member contributions. These are especially important for individuals in party leadership positions because they provide members with a vehicle for financially supporting candidates with whom they are philosophically aligned.

Approval and Reporting of Political Contributions

Requests for political contributions are evaluated by the Contributions Committee and approved by the Vice President of Government and Policy Affairs. Political spending reflects the company's interests and not those of individual associates. We report political contributions semi-annually, based on the calendar year in which they are approved, which may differ from when recipients report receiving the contribution.

This committee also reviews on an annual basis the Corporation's political contributions, including contributions to political action committees, corporate contributions, payments to trade associations and the Corporation's Government and Policy Affairs Annual Report.
